What is polymorphism?

- All LightBots understand the same set of messages
- But different LightBots might respond to the same message in different ways
- The receiver determines how to respond
- Polymorphism means that different receivers can respond to the same message in different ways